DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 11/29/05 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claims 1 and 12 comprises subject matter as not enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, for example, it is not possible to exert a bending moment in order to limit deformation of the closure, because " exert a bending moment" to the closure would be considered as deforming the closure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5-9, and 11-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Thompson (5,275,287). Thompson discloses, in figs. 1 and 2, a closure comprising a sealing system having a first sealing element 20, a second sealing element 43 and a third sealing element 31. The first and the third sealing elements providing sealing by deformation when the closure is applied to the container; the second sealing element providing sealing by direct compression when the closure is applied to the container, and presenting a thickness larger with respect to the rest of the closure to exert a bending moment as claimed.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-9, and 11-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Aichinger et al. (4,489,845).

4. Aichinger et al. disclose, in figs. 1 and 2, a closure comprising a sealing system having a first sealing element 13, a second sealing element 10 and a third sealing element 5. The first and the third sealing elements providing sealing by deformation when the closure is applied to the container; the second sealing element providing sealing by direct compression when the closure is applied to the container, and presenting a thickness larger with respect to the rest of the closure; therefore, it is capable to exert a bending moment as claimed (see fig. 2).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 4 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Thompson or Aichinger. Although Thompson or Aichinger does not disclose the shapes of the first and third sealing elements as claimed, it would have been an obvious matter of design choice to make the Thompson or Aichinger sealing elements with the shapes as claimed, since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the shape of a component. A change in shape is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art as the applicant admits in the present specification page 8/lines 6-8, and page 9/ lines 1, 2 and 11-13.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 11/29/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive as pointed out in the rejections above.

Conclusion

8. This is a RCE of the present applicant's Application. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
